Dear Parents and Carers,

As Team Trent had the most Dojo points for the term, they voted to have an Easter Egg Hunt for their winning treat yesterday. The children found the eggs in well-hidden places outside in very quick time!

The children loved going into the hall today to view the decorated eggs. They were all absolutely amazing, each one so different and creative!

Thank you to all the parents who made the effort to attend parents' evenings, it is so important to know how your child is progressing at school. 6B's parents evening has been re-scheduled for Tuesday 9th April.

After Easter, there has been a slight change to the middle management team. Mrs Scott and Mrs Cooper will continue with their fantastic work in leading Early Years (Nursery and Reception). We will also have phase leaders across the rest of the school. Miss Summers will lead Key Stage 1 (Years 1 and 2), Ms Smith will lead Lower Key Stage 2 (Years 3 & 4) and Miss Jackson will lead Upper Key Stage 2 (Years 5 & 6).

Well done to the children who received headteacher Awards today, these children are chosen half termly because they encompass the values of the school: 1W – Helin; 1M – Billy; 2S – Eloise; 2C – Sahib; 3S – Amaneek; 3C – David; 4Co – Barmeet; 4BP – Laura; 5K – Japneet; 5J – William; 6B – Diana; 6WH – Daniel.

Attendance winners this week are 1M and 4Co. Well done!
